

LONDON MOTET AND MADRIGAL CLUB

INVITES YOU TO SING IN THE BOXED PEWS OF ST PETER'S CHURCH, PETERSHAM (by the River Thames near Richmond) IN A WORKSHOP AND FESTIVAL EVENSONG ON SATURDAY 12 JUNE 2010. THE ANTHEMS AND SETTINGS WILL BE MUSIC WHICH QUEEN ELIZABETH I MIGHT HAVE HEARD IN HER NEARBY CHAPEL ROYAL AT RICHMOND (where she died).

OUR SINGING WILL BE ACCOMPANIED BY THE INTERNATIONALLY RENOWNED AND MUCH RECORDED VIOL CONSORT,

THE ROSE CONSORT OF VIOLS.

THE WORKSHOP WILL BE DIRECTED BY JONATHAN RENNERT, AND WILL FORM THE OPENING EVENT OF THIS YEAR'S PETERSHAM FESTIVAL.

The cost to participate is £10, which includes the workshop (from 2.00 till 4.30pm), a cup of tea and a biscuit in the Village Hall, and the service at 6.00pm. Please make cheques payable to 'LMMC' and send them with this form to: Nicholas Spence, 25 Harvard Road, LONDON W4 4EA. Acknowledgment will be sent by email, but only if you include your e-address. Full details of the music will also be sent.

If you are a non-singing listener who wishes to come to the workshop and tea, the charge is £2.

St Peter's, Petersham Road, TW10 7AA, is on the 65 & 371 bus routes from Richmond station. (Alight at the Dysart Arms.) There is limited disabled parking in Church Lane. The roads nearby are largely unrestricted.

Name(s) _____

Sop ____ Alto ____ Tenor ____ Bass ____ Listener ____

I enclose a cheque for _____

Please acknowledge receipt to the following e-address: